The Presenter may terminate this agreement for cause at any time with 30 days notice in writing from Presenter to Artist.

11.0 Indemnification

The Artist shall indemnify and save harmless the Presenter, its officers, its agents, and its employees from all loss, cost, and expense arising out of any liability or claim of liability for injury or damages to persons or property sustained or claimed to have been sustained by any one whomsoever, by reason of the use or occupancy of University Theatre, whether such use is authorized or not, or by any act or omission of Artist or any of its officers, agents, employees, guests, patrons, or invitees. Artist shall pay for any and all damage to the property of the Presenter, or loss or theft of such property, done or caused by such persons.

12.0 Access to Persons and Records

The State or Presenter auditor shall have access to persons and records as a result of all contracts or grants entered into by State agencies or political subdivisions in accordance with North Carolina General Statute §147-64.7 and Session Law 2010-194, Section 21.

13.0 Availability of Funds

The parties to this Agreement agree and understand that the continuation of this Agreement is dependent upon and subject to the appropriation, allocation or availability of funds for this purpose. The parties to this Agreement also agree that in the event Presenter, or that body responsible for the appropriation of said funds, in its sole discretion, determines in view of its total operations that available funding for the payment of the costs for this Agreement is insufficient to continue, it may choose to terminate this Agreement by giving Artist written notice of said termination, and this Agreement shall terminate immediately without any further liability to Presenter.

14.0 Preservation of Records

If Presenter provides any data to Artist pursuant to this Agreement then Artist shall preserve and maintain the data for a period of three (3) years or as indicated in a litigation hold letter issued by Presenter, to fulfill Presenter's obligations under the North Carolina Public Records Act and under the Federal and North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure. Artist shall immediately preserve and maintain data (and any generated email correspondence) upon Presenter's request or upon notice of litigation or audit and further Artist shall make available all data that Presenter may specify within the time limits required.

15.0 Privacy

15.1 If Presenter provides the Artist with personal identifiers as listed in N.C.G.S. §132-1.10 and in N.C.G.S. §14-113.20(b) or any other legally confidential information, Artist hereby certifies that collection of this information from Presenter is necessary for the performance of Artist's duties and responsibilities on behalf of Presenter under this Contract. Artist further certifies that it shall maintain the confidential and exempt status of any social security number information, as required by N.C.G.S. §132-1.10(c)(1), and that it shall not re-disclose personally identifiable information as directed by State and Federal laws. Failure to abide by legally applicable security measures and disclosure restrictions may result in the interruption, suspension and/or termination of the relationship with Artist for a period of at least five (5) years from date of violation. If Artist experiences a security breach, as defined in N.C.G.S. §75.61(14), relating to this information, in addition to the Artist's responsibilities under the NC Identity Theft Protection Act, Artist shall immediately notify Presenter with the information listed in N.C.G.S. §75-65(d)(1-4) and shall fully cooperate with Presenter. Artist shall indemnify Presenter for any breach of confidentiality or failure of its responsibilities to protect confidential information. Specifically, these costs may include, but are not limited to, the cost of notification of affected persons as a result of its unauthorized release of Presenter data provided to Artist pursuant to the Contract.

15.2 If Presenter provides the Artist with "personally identifiable information" from a student's education record as defined by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (“FERPA”) and its implementing regulation 34 CFR §99.3, Artist hereby certifies that collection of this information from Presenter is necessary for the performance of Artist’s duties and responsibilities on behalf of Presenter under this Contract. In this instance, Presenter considers Artist a school official with a legitimate educational interest under FERPA. Artist further certifies that it shall maintain the confidential status of education records in their custody, and that it shall not re-disclose personally identifiable information as directed by FERPA. Failure to abide by legally applicable security measures and disclosure restrictions may result in the interruption, suspension and/or termination of the relationship with Artist for a period of at least five (5) years from date of violation. If Artist experiences a security breach relating to this information or if Artist re-discloses the information, Artist shall immediately notify Presenter. Artist shall indemnify Presenter for any breach of confidentiality or failure of its responsibilities to protect the personally identifiable information. Specifically, these costs may include, but are not limited to, the cost of notification of affected persons as a result of its unauthorized release of Presenter data provided to Artist pursuant to the Contract.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, the authorized representatives of the parties have executed this Agreement in duplicate originals, one of which is retained by each of the parties, effective the day and year first written above.
